

Anheuser-Busch Brewery

Located just a few minutes from the Arch, this 100-acre brewery is a rich part of America's brewing history and the largest of Anheuser-Busch's breweries. Tours take guests on a tour of the historic stable, which is home to some of the Budweiser Clydesdale. They can also discover how their beers are crafted in the Brew House and packaged in the Bevo Packaging Plant.

Cherokee Street

Located just minutes south of downtown Saint Louis, within the Cherokee-Lemp Historic District, Cherokee Antique Row is a perfect afternoon getaway offering six blocks of Antique, Collectible and Specialty shops, Galleries, Restaurants and Café's!

Cliff Cave County Park

Cliff Cave, also known as Indian Cave is an important historic and archaeological site in Missouri. The cave is protected within Cliff Cave County Park, and can only be explored by permit from the St. Louis County Dept. of Parks and Recreation.

Delmar Loop

Located in University City, the Loop is a vibrant six block area with more than 140 boutiques, specialty shops, eclectic restaurants, galleries & live entertainment.

Edison Theater - Washington University

A popular theater located on Washington University's campus that hosts a variety of shows including student-led performances.

The Hill

Located in South St. Louis City, the Hill is an Italian neighborhood known for its nationally acclaimed restaurants, specialty groceries and bakeries, tiny "shotgun" houses and fire hydrants proudly painted red, white and green, the colors of the Italian flag.

Jefferson Barracks

Jefferson Barracks was established in 1826 as the country's first "Infantry School of Practice," and has served as a major military installation until 1946. Named in honor of former President Thomas Jefferson, the post played an important role in westward expansion. Jefferson Barracks served as a gathering point for troops and supplies bound for service in the Mexican War, Civil War, various Indian conflicts, Spanish-American War, Philippine War, World War I and World War II. Jefferson Barracks also served as the first Army Air Corps basic training site.

Kimmswick

Kimmswick offers a chance to step back into the less hurried days of the 1800's. Enjoy a walk through a beautiful town with over 25 one-of-a-kind shops and restaurants that will inspire you. The town is full of places to stay such as a bed and breakfast or charming guest house.

Lemp Mansion Restaurant and Inn

Built in 1862, the historic brewery has been beautifully furnished with period antiques. Lunch and dinner, a murder mystery theater as well as a bed and breakfast are available.

Mastodon State Park

A museum tells the natural and cultural story of the oldest American Indian site one can visit in the state's park system. A full-size replica of a mastodon skeleton highlights the exhibits. A picnic area, several trails and a special-use camping area offer chances to explore the land where the lives of Native Americans and mastodons once intertwined.

Missouri Botanical Garden

Founded in 1859, the Missouri Botanical Garden is the nation's oldest botanical garden in continuous operation and a National Historic Landmark. The Garden offers 79 acres of beautiful horticultural display, including a 14-acre Japanese strolling garden, Henry Shaw's original 1850 estate home, and one of the world's largest collections of rare and endangered orchids.

Sandy Creek Covered Bridge State Historical Site

The park features the Sandy Creek Covered Bridge, which boasts the picture-perfect appearance of an old red barn. It was one of six bridges built in 1872 to allow passage from the Jefferson County seat of Hillsboro to St. Louis.

Soulard

Soulard is well known for its festive and sometimes boisterous Mardi Gras and Bastille Day celebrations. It also host some of the area's best produce stands in its Farmers' Market. As in the old days, Soulard today is a socially and economically diverse community. The century plus old homes have attracted people of all ages and from many different walks of life.

Ste. Genevieve

This is a charming, laid-back town, where bicycles stand on the sidewalks without locks and people stroll in and out of inviting little shops filled with antiques, crafts, gifts, sweets and wine. One can enjoy the charm of an Old World village plus the comforts and convenience of modern living. Stroll through the streets of this unique community, dine in a variety of restaurants, browse the specialty shops and stay in distinguished bed and breakfast inns and other fine lodgings.

St. Louis Science Center

The Saint Louis Science Center has more than 700 hands-on exhibits. The OMNIMAX Theater, which boasts a high-fidelity motion picture system that uses state-of-the-art technology to create amazing images of unsurpassed clarity and impact, features an array of educational videos and documentaries.

Suson Park Animal Farm

Country living is just around the corner at the Suson Park animal farm display. Most breeds of farm animals are represented for urban dwellers to see and enjoy, from the draft horses that helped plow our soil to examples of the modern cattle breeds. Life on the farm never looked so good!

Ted Drewes Frozen Custard

Ted Drewes has been selling its popular frozen custard for decades, with an attention to quality that has made their custard the finest in St. Louis. One Location is on the historic Route 66 path while the other South City location is off Grand Blvd.

Tower Grove Park

The park is home to softball, soccer, tennis, corkball and frisbee games, as well as to the strollers, joggers, and picnickers who revel in the fanciful Victorian pavilions and sculptures Henry Shaw commissioned, and in the more than 8,000 trees and shrubs he imported from around the world.

